TREMENDOUS AMOUNTS NATION WILL FURNISH THE ALLIED NATIONS

Burden of Financing the War Now Begun.

Four Hundred Millions a Month Is Estimate.

Three Hundred Million for Great Britain, France and Italy.

By Associated Press Dispatch. Washington, May 7. — The government has decided to lend Great Britain $100,000,000 to meet her needs in this country during the month of May.

A second installment of $25,000,000 was sent to the British Embassy today, making with the $25,000,000 loaned Great Britain on Saturday, one half of the May loan.

The decision to advance to Great Britain $100,000,000 during May agrees with the estimates that this government would be called upon to finance the allies up to at least $400,000,000 each month.

Sum already planned for the next month or so are at the rate of $300,000,000 per month, and cover only the needs of Great Britain, France and Italy.

Additional loans to Russia, Belgium and possibly to Serbia will swell the total, it is believed, to at least $400,000,000 and bring the total advanced to the allies prior to July 1, when the first proceeds of the liberty loan will be available up to approximately one billion dollars.

Subscriptions to the Liberty Loan continue in large volume.

CLOSE DOORS OF SENATE TO DISCUSS BILL

Embargo and News paper, Censorship Sections of Bill Receive Attention in Executive Session.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, May 7.—To give administration leaders opportunity to explain the reason for their insistence on the embargo and newspaper censorship sections of the administration espionage bills, the Senate closed its doors today when it took up that measure.

Senators understood the Government had information to show that under present conditions information of military value is getting to the enemy, and the censorship is necessary.

Retention of the embargo section was supported by facts showing that supplies are getting into Germany through neutrals.

Senator Martin, Democratic leader, told Senators that President Wilson had called him to the White House and he would be embarrassed in dealing with the question of supplies getting into Germany if the Senate failed to pass the measure.

FIGHT IS ON TO LAND HUGE ARMY CAMP

Fayette County Has Opportunity of Obtaining Training Camp.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., May 7.—Chillicothe and Zanesville are making strenuous efforts to have the military training camp for Ohio and West Virginia conscripts located at or near them.

At least 400 acres of land will be needed for the camp, Adjutant General George H. Wood stated today.

Land owners and municipalities in Central Ohio having suitable sites are urged by him to lose no time in submitting offers.

Chillicothe is pointing out that it has good railroad facilities and that it is on the main line of the N. & W., which gives direct communication with West Virginia.

NATIONALISTS WIN ELECTIONS IN AUSTRALIA

(Associated Press Cable)

London, May 7.—A Melbourne dispatch says that it seems certain that the Australian election will give the Nationalists control of both houses of Parliament.

The party senate candidates are leading strongly everywhere except in Queensland.

The majorities in the labor stronghold are enormously reduced.

BITTER CONFLICT

Australia has been the scene of a bitter political war since last November when the administration's conscription bill was defeated at the polls.

Premier Hughes was ousted from the leadership of the Federal labor party and formed a new labor party for the purpose of continuing the fight for conscription. The dissent in his ranks caused him to resign on February 19, but on request of the governor-general, he immediately formed a new coalition cabinet.

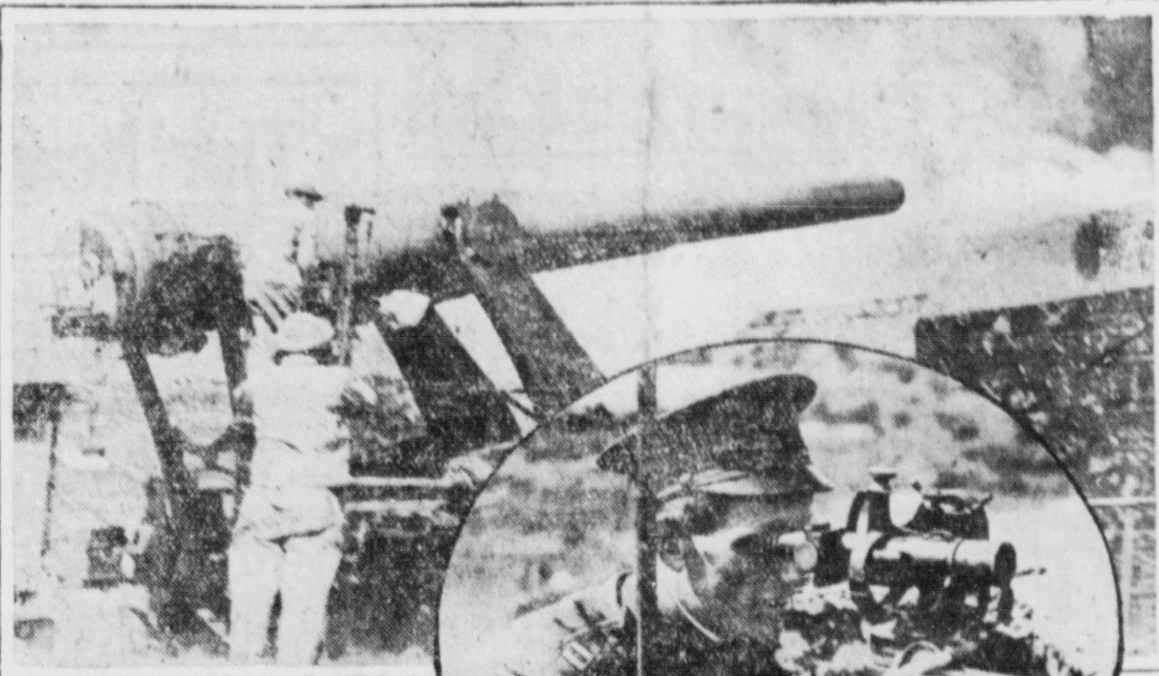

The acuteness of the political situation prevented Premier Hughes from attending the conference in London.

EXPLOSION

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Kingsport, Tenn., May 7.—An explosion early today at the Central Dyestuffs and Chemical Company, which makes munitions, wrecked a portion of the buildings, killed one man and fatally injured several others. One is missing. An investigation is being made.

OUR COAST DEFENSES FOR HOSTILE SHIPS ARE READY

LEARNING HOW TO DEFEND OUR COASTS

While every effort is being made to strengthen the mobile forces of the nation in preparation for active war with Germany, the coast defenses of the nation are not neglected. Army men have not lost sight of the possibility of an attack on our coasts. The pictures show three scenes at one of the principal Atlantic coast forts: Upper, just after firing a practice shot with one of the twelve inch coast defense rifles; center, keeping a close watch for enemy submarines or other craft; lower, swabbing out the chamber of the big gun after firing. All the main strategic points of our coast are well defended, it is believed; but many persons hold with Admiral Peary that we need an immense fleet of aerial coast defenders.

BRITISH CAPTURE ANOTHER VILLAGE FRENCH ADVANCING

Violent and Rapidly Repeated Counter Attacks Fail to Shake Allied Grip

Tremendous Losses Suffered By Germans Who Continue Massed Attacks.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Bullecourt, directly on the Hindenburg line has been entered by British troops, who this morning were fighting Germans within the town.

Giving the Germans no time to bring up reserves from the Aisne front, General Haig's troops began today to widen the breach they have made in the Hindenburg line in the Bullecourt region.

Counter attacks of extreme violence rapidly repeated, have failed to shake the British grip on the line at this point, and have not prevented them from striking again when they were ready.

On the front northeast of Soissons the Germans have been forced to employ fresh troops in an effort to stem the French advance.

Last night they drove masses of men against the lines along this front but were unable to shake the French hold upon the valuable and hard-won ground on the plateau of the Ailette river, outlying defense of Laon.

Everywhere the French held fast, mowing down the Germans with their fire.

In the new battle which developed last week, the French have taken more than 6,200 prisoners, bringing their total captives since April 16 up to 29,000.

LABOR URGES IRISH QUESTION ON PREMIER

(Associated Press Cable.)

London, May 7.—Powerful representations about to be made to Premier Lloyd George of the War Cabinet by representatives of Labor, as to their views of the imperative urgency of a settlement of the Irish question.

The Pall Mall Gazette understands: "It is generally understood by the newspapers that unless a satisfactory settlement is quickly arrived at, the labor leaders and members of the government may be compelled to reconsider their position."

PLANE FALLS YOUNG RECRUITS ARE CRUSHED

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Hempstead, N. Y., May 7.—Peter Merritt, of Roosevelt, N. Y., and John Stendorf, of Tonawanda, N. Y., both privates in the recently organized aviation corps, at Hempstead Plains, were killed today when their machine fell from a height of over 2,000 feet.

The accident was witnessed by many persons on the aviation field, who were observing the flight of the two students.

Some eyewitnesses claimed that the gasoline tank of the aeroplane exploded, while others attribute the mishap to jamming of the steering gear.

NEW YORK BANKS LOSE

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, May 7.—New York banks today lost their litigation in the supreme court against the North German Lloyd liner Kron Prinzessin Cecilie, at Boston, in which they claimed $2,240,000 damages for failure of the vessel to deliver gold bullion worth $11,000,000 shipped to England and France at the outbreak of the war.

The court decided that the liner is not liable to the shippers for turning back to America in mid-ocean and abandoning her voyage.

The decision also determines many claims against other German vessels. Justice Holmes delivered the decision. Justice Pitney and Clark dissented.

RUSSIANS PREPARING FOR FIGHT

Gen. Gurko Places Taboo on Fraternizing With Germans.

Warns Troops to Look for Attack if Lull Comes in the West.

(Associated Press Cable.)

Petrograd, via London, May 7.—General Gurko, commander on the west front, has issued an order declaring that the fraternizing with the enemy troops must be stopped. He declares that such fraternizing has become a common practice, and enables the enemy to learn Russian military disposition, and by causing a lull on the Russian front leaves the Germans free to concentrate forces against the British and French.

General Gurko warns the troops that if the fighting comes to a standstill in France the Germans will throw all of their forces against the Russians who, lulled by promises of peace, will not be in readiness to repel the attack.

He said that three divisions of Germans have been transferred from the Russian front and others are following, including artillery and aircraft.

The order concludes with an ardent appeal to the troops in the name of the emancipation of enslaved nations to do their duty toward Russia and her allies.

A SLEEPER IN PURCHASE OF "INDIES"

German Interned Vessels Are Protected Under the Terms of Purchase.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, May 7.—It was revealed in the House today that an unpublished provision in the agreement with Denmark by which the Danish West Indies were acquired by the United States, was that German or any other warships found in the islands would not be seized or confiscated.

The disclosure was made by Chairman Alexander of the House committee, representing the administration to confer Congressional sanction upon the president for seizure and operation of enemy vessels.

When Republican leader Mann asked for more information about the agreement, Chairman Webb, of the Judiciary Committee, warned the House that it was not a disclosure to be discussed publicly.

Mr. Alexander then, explaining the purposes of the bill, which he said was to give the President full power to take title in the ships except in the Virgin Islands, and to provide for their operation or lease by the Government.

ULTRA CONSERVATIVES PLAN THE DOWNFALL OF BETHMAN HOLLWEG

DR. VON BETHMANN-HOLLWEG

The campaign against Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German imperial chancellor, is again in full swing. The Conservatives, although insisting, as usual, that the other parties observe a political truce in the interests of the fatherland, have adopted and published a set of resolutions sharply attacking the chancellor and censuring the government for weakness and vacillation on the peace question and in dealing with the strike agitation.

The resolutions express grave grief and concern at the steadily growing influence of the socialists, whose peace making efforts are declared to be leading Germany to the brink of ruin.

ELECTRIC TRAINS IN COLLISION

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Fremont, Ohio, May 7.—Nearly 20 persons were injured in a Lakeshore Electric wreck at Gibsonburg Junction Sunday, near midnight.

None of the victims is thought to be fatally injured. Four were taken to Toledo hospitals.

A westbound limited crashed into an east bound local on the Junction siding, telescoping it.

J. C. Monfort, limited motorman, and C. A. Summer, the local motorman, both of Fremont, saved their lives by jumping.

Two special cars took four Fremont physicians to the scene of the wreck. One of these took the more seriously injured to Toledo. Among these was David Meyer, a Cleveland clock manufacturer.

PLANES BOMB ENVIRONS OF LONDON AGAIN

(Associated Press Cable.)

London, May 7.—A hostile airplane dropped four bombs northeast of London this morning, it is announced.

The official statement announcing the raid reads:

"In the early hours this morning a hostile airplane appeared over the outskirts of northeast London and dropped four bombs."

"One man was killed and a man and a woman injured. The damage to buildings was slight."

FIRST CALL WILL TAKE 160 MEN IN FAYETTE COUNTY

Ohio's Quota of First Levy for War Will Be 25,286 of the First 500,000—Ages Not Yet Determined.

Fayette's quota of soldiers for the first 500,000 conscripts, in addition to filling up the guards, will be 160 men, according to a table of figures compiled by Adjutant General Wood and based on the last census.

Ohio's quota for the first call will be 25,286 men, and if conscription is used in filling up the National Guard, the number will be increased about one-third or even more, and Fayette's quota will be in excess of 200 men for both purposes.

The same basis will be followed in subsequent calls for 500,000 troops, each call meaning the withdrawal of about 160 men from Fayette or 25,286 from the state.

Within the next few days it is expected that the age limits will be fixed, and announcement made as to the classes in which the eligibles will be arranged.

In all probability the unmarried men will be called into training first, beginning with the lowest ages—about 20—and including all unmarried men between that age and, say, 27 years. The second call would take the unmarried men from 27 years up to an other age limit. However, no definite information has yet been announced as to this, although the tentative plan is as given above.

FINDS PHOTOGRAPH CARRIED BY STORM

Mr. O. A. Klever, of Paint township, Monday morning turned over to The Herald a photograph which he picked up soon after the tornado in northern Fayette county, and which photograph is supposed to have been carried from Newcastle, Indiana, by the same storm.

Mr. Klever endeavored to have the photograph identified at Bookwalter, but the man in the picture was a stranger to all in the Bookwalter community.

The photograph will be forwarded to The Courier, of Newcastle, where it will be exhibited for the purpose of identification, and if identified will be turned over to the owner.

A large photograph of a woman was found near the picture of the man, and is still held by the finder in Northern Fayette.

MORE TROOP TRAINS PASS THROUGH CITY

During the past several days a number of troop trains have passed through the city, having right of way over all other traffic, and making few stops.

The number of trains, direction and over what road are withheld for military reasons.

Even the railroad employees are not informed as to where the troops are bound, or the number.

Under present conditions special trains and irregular schedules render crossing danger much greater, and additional precaution should be taken before attempting to cross railroad tracks.

SMASHED WINDOW AND STEALS FLOUR

The sight of a sack of flour in the Washington Milling Company looked too much like gold to someone during Sunday night, with the result that the thief smashed a window and stole four 25-pound sacks of Monitor flour.

The thief left no clue behind him, but tracks indicated that the sacks had been carried out two at a trip. The matter is in the hands of the police.

HOUSE DAMAGED

The residence property of Samuel Rooks, located on the Robinson road, was badly damaged by fire, a few days ago, but the prompt arrival and action of neighbors saved the structure from destruction.

SHIPMENTS OF IRON AND COAL ARE FIRST IN RAILROAD TRAFFIC

Until further notice all railroads will devote their attention first of all to the prompt moving of coal and iron, and will give these two commodities precedence over all other traffic.

This announcement has been made by the American Railway Association and is due to the great demand for coal and iron—a demand never before approached in the history of the country.

If necessary the roads will subordinate passenger traffic in order to keep the coal and iron trains moving, and will make every effort to handle every pound of iron and coal produced.

All railroads of the country have pledged their entire support to the government, and will give all government business first attention, side-tracking all trains when necessary for troop movement, or shipment of supplies by special train.

Freight shipments will necessarily be somewhat uncertain until the war is at an end and normal conditions are restored.

The Home Gardeners

The work of mobilizing the human units for the cultivation of home gardens has progressed in a manner which has been a source of great gratification to the men and women in charge. The forces have been rounded up splendidly; the call for volunteers has been met with an enthusiastic response. Every spoken word and every written and printed line has been received and considered by the anxious workers.

The army has been ready to move for some time now but nature persists in keeping them back by the impenetrable wall of unfavorable weather conditions.

It is encouraging though to know that denial of opportunity to work has not decreased the enthusiasm of the folks who want to do their part in preventing a food shortage.

The gardens prepared and planted during the very few days of April that permitted work of that kind are not giving that promise of results which is the greatest encouragement to the amateur gardener.

The volunteers for home gardening are being put to the extreme test and unfavorable conditions make their efforts more necessary.

A Momentous Announcement

The announcement of W. L. Saunderson, Chairman of the Naval Consulting Board that American genius has found the solution of the submarine problem, causes every American to feel a thrill of genuine pride.

Coming from so eminent an authority as Mr. Saunderson the announcement is entitled to be regarded as of the utmost importance and thoroughly dependable.

Mr. Saunderson does not, of course, state in broad and emphatic terms that the plan which the Naval Consulting Board has approved and forwarded to Washington will beyond all doubt master the menace which threatens the destruction of civilization. Men like Mr. Saunderson don't speak in words of that sort.

He does say, however, "It looks as if the submarine problem had been solved."

That's a strong statement for the chairman to make. In fact it's about as emphatic as such a man would make prior to the actual accomplishment of the gigantic task which the American navy officials and the members of its Consulting Board have set for themselves.

Germany is now basing all her hopes of making a draw fight of the great war upon two events—the disintegration of Russia as a fighting force and the success of the "ruthless" submarine warfare on the sea.

The failure of either one of the hopes to come to complete realization would mean the collapse of German resistance in the very near future.

Realization of both hopes (and it must be both) would mean a much longer duration of the war with its consequent destruction of life and property. It would mean also a far heavier burden on this nation.

If American genius, as now seems probable from Mr. Saunderson's statement, can end the submarine campaign, Russia's future attitude is not of so much importance.

It is essential to liberty throughout the world that the submarines be mastered. Civilization would welcome the solution of the awful problem from any source but Americans hope that Yankee genius may write its name in time's great corridors by being able to give to the anxiously waiting world that which it seeks.

What of Russia?

The revolution in Russia has not served to increase the active work of the Russian armies. In fact ever since the overthrow of the Czar there has been a marked slowing up in the fighting on the east front. Germany seems no longer to fear the aggressions of the Slav on the east front and for some reason, not known, the Kaiser troops have withheld an offensive move against the Russians.

If, even relieved of the distracting influences of war, the people of Russia were able to accomplish without subsequent scenes of rioting and disorder, so complete a change as that inaugurated by the revolution it would be the wonder of the world. To accomplish such a change at this time would be but little short of miraculous.

Russia is a tremendously big country, its millions of inhabitants are, taken as a whole uneducated and do not respond quickly to governmental restrictions.

Autocracy could not hold the immense conglomerate together and it has always been doubtful if democracy could do what autocracy failed to do under the terrible pressure of the present war turmoil.

There is not so much danger, it seems now, of a separate peace between Germany and Russia as there is of internal dissension which will destroy, absolutely, the efficiency of Russia as a fighting force.

Poetry For Today

THE SENTRY.

I see a shadowy form arise
As I ascend the stair;
A voice I faintly recognize
Calls gruffly, "Who goes there?"
But when I gave the countersign
(Which, luckily, I knew),
The guard who holds the outer line
Resumes his sentry go.

His wooden gun at "shoulder arms,"
He watches on the stair,
His ears alert for all alarms
From land, or sea, or air.
And woe betide the alien spy,
However shrewd and keen,
However serpentine sly,
Who thinks to pass unseesed.

Then guard mount, and the watch is done!
A little sleepy head
Is laid, beside the wooden gun,
Upon a trundle bed.
And as the twilight softly streaks
With red and gold and west,
With mother's kisses on his cheeks,
The sentry takes his rest.

God grant that he may never know
The evil face of war,
Or do a lonely sentry go
Upon a far-off shore!
But if he's called to do his part,
We know that he will bear
As valiant and as brave a heart
As when he watched the stair!

As when he watched the stair!

MONTRAVILLE WOOD HAS NEW INVENTION

Montraville Wood, who appeared in this city two years ago, showing his marvelous inventions—the gyroscope and ultra-violent rays, has recently turned over to the government a new invention in the nature of a "hearing" torpedo, which, once launched, unerringly follows the ship at which it is aimed and does its deadly work.

The torpedo is so arranged that the sound of a vessel causes the torpedo to follow the noise and strike the vessel at which it has been discharged. "Hearing" devices on either side of the torpedo's nose are highly responsive to sound waves, and by delicate mechanism act upon the guiding device of the torpedo.

It is expected that the torpedo will revolutionize this method of warfare and render the torpedo far more deadly than at present.

WAGING WAR IN THE HOLY LAND

(Associated Press Cable)

With the British Army in Mesopotamia—May 7.—The war in Mesopotamia and along the Persian border has carried the British and Russian armies into the country of the Nestorians, or East Syrians, who claim that the first tidings of Christianity were brought to them by the three wise men of the East, writes the British official eyewitness with this army. Two of the wise men who sought the birthplace of Christ, are reported to have been natives of Urmia, in Northern Persia, and their tombs are pointed out in the Church of Mart Mariam in that town.

The Nestorians are now a remnant of a once powerful community and are ruled by the Turks. They dwell mostly between Mosul, Lake Van and Lake Urmia, near the Turco-Persian border. They are divided into two sections, the Ashiret, or free tribesmen, and the Ryat, or subject people. Included in the Ryats are the Chaldeans who dwell in the villages of the Mosul plain and in the chief towns on the Tigris river from Diarbekr to Basra. The Chaldeans are under the influence of the Church of Rome, while the others retain their ancient faiths. Some of the Nestorians are very warlike. Of those who dwell along the upper Tiari river, every man possesses a rifle or gun and carries a "hanjar," or dagger. The Nestorian is very religious. On Sundays he will not defile his mouth by uttering a word of the Kurdish language which he regards as vile.

GERMANY PLANS AFTER WAR SHIPPING

The Hamburg-American has at present under construction at Hamburg one ship of 56,000 tons, the Rismarch; a turbine steamer of 20,000 tons, the Tirpitz; and three other vessels of an aggregate of 22,000 tons. The same company is building at Bremen nine ships of an aggregate of 47,000 tons for the Panama trade.

The North German Lloyd is building two ships of 35,000 tons each, two of 16,000 tons and twelve of 12,000 tons each.

The South American line has under way a sister ship to the Cape Trafalgar. The African line is building six ships, the Hansa line eight, and the Cosmos line ten, all of 9,000 to 13,000 tons each.

FLOAT TRICOLOR!!

(By American Press)

Indianapolis, May 7.—Throughout the Hoosier state today the French tri-color floats proudly at the side of Old Glory. By executive proclamation today is being celebrated as Lafayette day in recognition of the heroism of the Marquis de Lafayette of our revolutionary period and of the heroism of France of today. Governor Goodrich in his proclamation asked the citizens of the state to make the day one of self-denial and give liberally to the organizations for the relief of fighting France and French orphans.

A man who is blind to his own interests finds many persons who are anxious to lead him in the other direction.

In Social Circles

Miss Marjorie Klever the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Klever, charmingly entertained twenty of her girl friends with a Kensington, Saturday afternoon.

It was distinctively patriotic in its effective introduction of the red, white and blue and a clever red, white and blue contest in which Miss Cozella Townsley won the prize, a beautiful corsage bouquet.

After a very merry afternoon a delicious collation was served, with the national colors used in the ices and confection and the favors red carnations and tiny American flags.

The rooms were pretty and inviting, with graceful baskets of vivid red tulips adding a bright color note.

The young hostess, wearing a dainty white frock was assisted in the cordial hospitalities of the afternoon by her mother, Mrs. Elmer Klever, Mrs. Will Klever, Misses Elizabeth Sheen and Louise Weaver.

The guests were Misses Margaret Christopher, Mary Brownell, Florence Robinson, Rosalie Slagle, Marie Tharp, Mary Casey, Martha Nelson, Helen Durant, Alice Parrett, Maxine Kibler, Avenelle Timmons, Mary Elizabeth Holmes, Mary Foreman, Neile and Ruth Cissna, Eleanor McClain, Cozella Townsley, Mary Persinger.

Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Armstrong entertained with an enjoyable dinner Sunday in honor of Mrs. W. H. White of Logan and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Miller and daughter, Katharine.

A jolly birthday surprise was tendered Miss Louise Brannon daughter of Mr. J. W. Brannon, of Yatesville Friday evening.

The surprise was promoted by an older sister, Mrs. Verna Draise, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hutson assisted.

Thirty young people participated.

A fascinating story is told in music of unusual beauty, and plaintiveness in "The Rose Maiden," which will be sung by the H. S. Glee Clubs at the joint Glee Club concert and Class Day Friday night.

The story runs:

The Queen of the Flower Fairies, weary of a life of unbroken calm, prays of the newly returned Spring that he will bestow upon her also the gift of love that he bestows upon man. He warns her of the risk she runs, but finally yields to her entreaties by changing her while she slept into the form of a beautiful girl.

Under the name of Roseblossom she wanders through the world to find the love that she seeks, and meets with a girl, who having been betrayed and deserted by her lover loses her senses and dies broken-hearted. Brought back to life by her search, Roseblossom becomes the wife of a forester, with whom she lives for a time in such perfect happiness that she cannot survive his death.

The elves bewailed the death of their Queen and curse Love as fatal to peace and happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cockerill and daughter, Mrs. Nina Porter South of town, delightfully entertained at dinner Sunday Mrs. I. U. Arnold, Miss Laura Porter, Mrs. Harold Moon and daughter, Senorita, of Oklahoma, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Duncan and children, Miss Alice Porter, of Greenfield; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Porter and daughter, Jane, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cockerill and son, Richard, of Washington C. H.

An elaborate course dinner was served; the centerpiece of the pretty table was tulips and green.

Mrs. John King pleasantly entertained the young men of her Sunday School Class of the M. E. Church of Good Hope, Saturday evening at her handsome home on the Good Hope pike.

Interest grows with each meeting of "The Poultry Club," in charge of Mrs. Frank E. Haines.

At the Saturday afternoon meeting, at the Y. M. C. A. President Grove Davis presiding there was greatly increased enthusiasm. One boy had visited the lumber yards and was able to report both prices and plans for making chicken coops as suggested by the State. Two boys reported the cost of hurdles. Some of the children told of chickens hatched, others of the pigs they were raising and there was plenty of evidence that the poultry club would be a profitable working organization.

Mrs. Haines entertained the children with refreshments and there was a social hour after the program.

A party of twenty Dayton people motored over Sunday to give Mrs. Frank Michaels a birthday surprise.

It was the biggest kind of a surprise and proved a very jolly affair. The guests presented Mrs. Michaels with numerous gifts and lighted candles upon a large birthday cake, which graced the center of the table.

Superintendent and Mrs. McClain and the members of the Board of Education, with their wives, were honored guests at a four-course dinner given by the High School Freshman class, under Miss Van Hyning's direction.

The art of Domestic science was shown in perfection in the well cooked viands and the girls had worked out a red and white decorative color scheme in tulips and narcissi that was both original and pretty.

CLEANING UP LOOSE ENDS

(By American Press)

Washington, May 7.—A conference to sum up the work of the British mission to date and plan for what remains to be done was held by Secretary Lansing and Foreign Secretary Balfour and Sir Eric Drummond.

Three formal meetings of the British and American representatives on shipping, trade and military questions have resulted in the appointment of a group of subcommittees to discuss an American expeditionary corps to France, material, intelligence, munitions, hospitals, shipping, the allies' needs in imports and America's resources towards filling those needs. At the same time the financial situation has been pretty well clarified in direct conferences, while the naval situation has been brought to a point where a general conference may be sought.

Diplomatic issues, with the single exception of Mr. Balfour's statement that the United States would not be expected to enter an actual alliance have not occupied the attention of the British visitors, and it is probable, in the uncertain situation on all sides, that there will be little but an exchange of views in this regard. The Russian and South American problems and the internal situation in the central empires are the main questions in mind, but they do not admit of very definite treatment in conference.

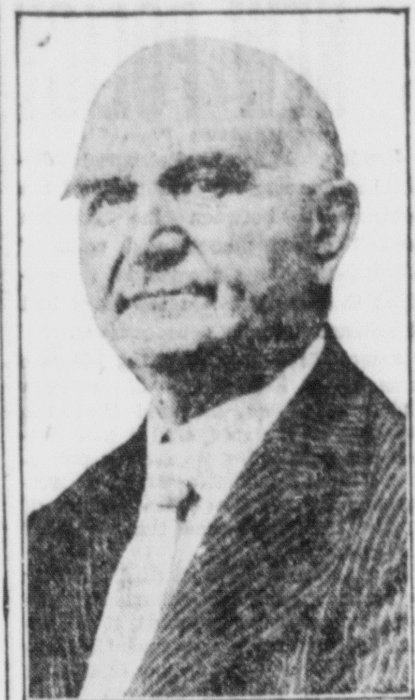

Now that eight different committees are at work on major problems there remains the necessity of clearing up many other loose ends while awaiting the reports. The British commission came to this country with experts developed by two and a half years of actual war experience, who naturally have had difficulty in finding corresponding officials in the American government.

The probable length of stay of the mission is increasing daily and the original tentative date for departure has been changed to about May 20. The mission probably will go in a body to New York for a two days' joint reception with the French on the return of the latter from the West and then come back here for another week. After that Mr. Balfour and his party will go out through the middle west and to Canada, where they will spend a few days before sailing for England.

FEAR ASSAULT ON DEMOCRACY

(By American Press)

Washington, May 7.—"We are fighting that democracy shall not be smothered at home while the nation fights to extend it abroad."

This is the way Judson Kink, executive secretary of the National Popular Government League, today summed up the wartime aims of his organization. King felt very strongly the need of alert watchfulness to guard against the overturning by special interests of long fought for reforms while the attention of the people is distracted by the war. He said:

"We are fighting to bring democratic government to Germany. Her economic democracy is twenty-five years ahead of ours already, but it is not for economic democracy we are fighting. It is for political democracy. When the democratization of the German government is accomplished it behooves us to beware lest her people, just liberated, take from us the honor of having the most democratic government in the world."

"Due to the widespread economic changes now in progress in the United States a general making-over of ten state constitutions is scheduled to take place during the next eighteen months. The people must be on their guard lest the forces of reaction gain control of constitutional conventions and make the constitutions to suit themselves."

"This is a dangerous time for democracy. With the people engrossed in the war the time is propitious for the interests to slip in and tie them up indefinitely with undemocratic constitutions."

The M. H. G. Class will meet at the home of Miss Esther Leland Monday evening, May 7, at 7:30 o'clock.
SECRETARY.

DANGERS FROM THE MISGUIDED THRIFT EFFORTS

New York, May 7.—"One of the greatest dangers that confront us at this moment is misguided thrift," declares a statement issued today by S. W. Straus, President of the American Society for Thrift.

In our efforts to be patriotically economical, we find ourselves going to extremes in the opposite direction, which is just as great a menace as wastefulness and extravagance," he said. "One of the worst calamities that could befall our nation at any time would be to stop the wheels of industry, but more especially now."

"The point is to differentiate between destructive and constructive thrift. In time of peace warlike extremes in the opposite direction, waste is reprehensible, but indiscriminate tight-fistedness is worse, because in such conditions the provision is made to suffer with the imbecile."

"Because the whole nation suddenly has become conscious of the necessity of thrift, we as individuals should also care not to deflect from their normal courses the tides of the nation's money that turn the wheels of industry. America as a nation is not in any danger of running short of money, but we are threatened with a food shortage because on us rests the duty and responsibility of feeding our allies."

"Everyone can distinguish the difference between prudent living and wastefulness. If a man buys a suit of clothes, a pair of shoes or a hat, his money goes into legitimate circulation and furnishes uses for capital and employment for labor."

"The American people have responded in a grand way to the needs of the hour. We are going to conserve our resources and increase our food supply in a way that will astonish the world, but in doing this we stand face to face with economic hardships unless each individual is governed by common sense, prudence and foresight."

"In brief, administer your expenditure in a clean, honest, legitimate and patriotic manner. Eliminate waste of food, bearing in mind that every mouthful you save may be the sustenance of some starving fellow-human being abroad. We should not tear down on one hand while we are trying to build up on the other. Those in business should not hesitate—the courageous and keep on going. America has everything to make herself prosperous. The billions of dollars which are being raised for war purposes will be eventually returned into the pockets of the people. Even the money which we loan to our allies is being spent immediately in America. The national bond issue means that for some years to come this country will be paying back the obligations incurred today. America is still in the midst of the greatest era of material prosperity the country has ever known."

"In the matter of individual expenditure every man should be guided by his own necessities and the needs of his country. Let none of us be a slacker in the business world. This is no day for the coward or weakling. Be brave and confident. Remember the most acute need of our nation today is intelligent, productive, constructive thrift."

IMPROVES STOCK

(By American Press)

Portland, Ore., May 7.—The introduction of $20,000 worth of Australian sheep into the Pacific northwest promises to revolutionize the sheep growing industry of this section of the country. And the reason for this great change is the enormous demand for wool and mutton, owing to the world war. Sheep men have found that breeds now grown are not suitable for producing both wool and mutton. Some breeds are better for wool and others for meat.

Recently H. Stanley Coffin of North Yakima, Wash., one of the largest wool growers in the country, returned from a trip through Australia and New Zealand and brought with him $20,000 worth of sheep from those famous wool growing countries. The blood of these sheep will be introduced into the flocks of the northwest, in an effort to produce a breed that will not only produce a heavy crop of wool, but will be unexcelled for meat. Mr. Coffin's firm now has 60,000 sheep in Washington and Idaho.

WOOD MAY BE CHOSEN LEADER

(By American Press)

Columbus, May 7.—Names of four officers are being mentioned by Ohio national guardsmen as possibilities for the guard's highest post—that of major general commanding the proposed Ohio division of troops. Those mentioned are Adjutant General Wood; General W. V. McMaken, Toledo, commander of the First brigade; General John C. Speaks, Columbus, commander of the Second brigade, and Colonel C. C. Weybrecht, Alliance, newly commissioned commander of the new Tenth regiment. The appointing power lies with the governor, at least as long as the guard is in state service. If the Ohio guard were to be drafted into federal service before the division is completed, the president might make the appointments. It is said, although it is believed the president even then would permit governors to appoint the officers of regularly organized state troops.

TO COPE WITH SUBMARINES

(By American Press)

Washington, May 7.—That American ingenuity eventually will meet the German submarine menace was the declaration made by Secretary of the Navy Daniels. He added no information would be made public as to the nature of experiments which have been in progress to check the U-boats.

Mr. Daniels spoke, however, without knowledge of the specific devices with which the members of the consulting board have been experimenting, and his confidence was based wholly upon the record for mechanical inventiveness which American engineers and scientists have maintained for years.

A telegram from Lawrence Addicks of Elizabeth, N. J., chairman of the special naval problems committee of the consulting board, served to clear up somewhat misapprehension concerning Mr. Saunders' statements. The message follows:

"I fear some of the statements in the papers regarding the naval consulting board may unwittingly give wrong impression regarding progress made in combating the submarine menace, and that conclusions are likely to be drawn that the problem has been either fully solved or given up as hopeless.

"While it is evident that specific information as to progress made would be contrary to public policy at this time, as chairman of the committee of the board dealing specifically with the marine menace I feel justified in saying that good and satisfactory progress has been made and that we have now under practical trial some novel device of great promise.

"This committee was formed at the time of the break with Germany to take over all problems relating to the detection and destruction of submarines and the defeat of the torpedo and has under its direction the various experimental stations devoted to this work. In addition to this Mr. Edison is separately conducting a line of experiments in his own laboratory, regarding the results of which I am not qualified to speak."

Mr. Addicks' statement confirms the understanding of officials of the department have had of the progress being made by the inventors. They have been at work for months on various research studies and since the declaration of a state of war with Germany have redoubled their efforts to find a way to cope with the U-boat menace. In many instances naval experts have been called into consultation by the board members or have aided in direct experiments.

The department is determined that if the hopeful indications from the consulting board are borne out and one or more new ways of meeting the submarine discovered, the German authorities will be prevented from securing an inkling of what is in prospect and thus be denied an opportunity to prepare against any new weapons in advance.

HOME GARDEN SUGGESTIONS

The gardener of a small space may attempt to grow squashes and melons if he will follow the cultural directions for cucumbers and train the vines to climb, says today's garden instruction from the National Emergency Food Garden Commission, which is aiding this newspaper to increase garden produce.

But where climbing cucumbers are at 15 inches apart, the squash vines should not be planted closer to gether than one every 3 feet. When squashes of the heavy varieties are thus trained to climb up fences, walls, or even clothes poles the fruits should be supported with trusses of tape or cloth.

There are two types of squashes—summer and winter. Summer squashes are small and are eaten green when the seeds are soft. The larger winter squashes grow to full maturity and may be stored. Summer squashes are bushy and need less space than the winter variety. When the vines are allowed to run along the ground they may be planted in hills 4 feet apart, whereas the hills of winter vines should be planted 8 to 10 feet apart.

Three or four squash vines will supply a family. When vines are allowed to run it is well to throw a spadefull of earth over each vine every 3 or 4 feet at a leaf-joint. Where it is thus covered it will put out roots, offsetting any injury to the vine nearer the main root. Seeds should be planted after all danger of frost, covering them with an inch or two of earth.

AGED WOMAN

Run Down and Feeble — Made Strong by Vinol.

So many people in Washington Court House and vicinity are in Mrs. Wickersham's condition we ask you to call at our store and get a bottle of Vinol and if it fails to benefit we will return your money.

In her eighty-second year, Mrs. John Wickersham, of Russellville, Pa., says, "I was in a run-down, feeble condition and had lost flesh. A neighbor asked me to try Vinol, and after taking two bottles my strength returned; I am gaining in flesh, it has built up my health and I am feeling fine for a woman of my age, so I get around and do my housework."

The reason Vinol was so successful in Mrs. Wickersham's case was because it contains beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, the very elements needed to build up a weakened run-down system and create strength.

Right here in Washington Court House we have seen such excellent results from Vinol that it is a pleasure to know it is doing so much good for old people in other parts of the country.

RUSS ADOPT NEW POLICY

(By American Press)

London, May 7.—Petrograd dispatches announce a settlement of the controversy between the Russian council of workmen's and soldiers' delegates and the provisional government that for the last few days had threatened serious consequences.

Prince Tseretelli, speaking before a tremendous assemblage of soldiers and workmen, declared that the government had prepared a new declaration concerning its foreign policy, which was in definite language, corresponding to the proclamation of April 9 and embodied the views of the proletariat.

Prince Tseretelli then read the new declaration sent the council by the government and explained that the trouble was over and that the provisional government would remain in power. The speaker went on to explain that the principal exception which the council had taken to the recent note of the government, was the phrase "war to a victorious conclusion," which, he asserted, was an unfortunate expression, since it was identified with the formula used so often by the old regime with quite a different sense.

"Now that the question has been settled here," said Prince Tseretelli, "our aims—war without annexations, expropriations or contributions—also must be realized abroad. We must know the attitude of the democracy of our allies. If a similar movement takes place in the foreign democracies, this will bring peace nearer and we shall struggle until our views are also the avowed aims of the democracies with whom we are allied."

"The situation Thursday was most serious for the whole country. We do not yet know what the government meant. Conflict seemed unavoidable, but the government realized that it must respect our determination. By this acknowledgment the government has shown that it deserves the trust of the democracy. The conflict is now settled and we must go on quietly with our work. We must inform all our comrades that the trouble is over and tell them of the new victory of democracy, and that the government is standing firmly in its original position. The council appeals to the public to unite around it."

While the members of the executive committee were explaining the rapprochement with the government a great anti-government demonstration was taking place outside the very doors of the building. Orators who were denouncing the government were loudly acclaimed. Later there was a serious clash, in which shooting occurred, in front of the Hotel Europe, causing a momentous panic among the guests.

WHITE HOUSE IS TO HAVE GARDEN

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, May 4.—The National Emergency Food Garden Commission today presented to Nelson P. Webster of the White House Executive office staff seeds valued at $100, with which to plant the vacant lot opposite the White House.

The plan of the White House office force is to raise a food garden and thus set an example to the country in the nation wide campaign for vacant lot gardening which was urged by President Wilson in his recent proclamation to the American people.
